

MCS Holds Its First Online General Conference

总议会首次举行线上议会

The 12th Session of the General Conference of the Methodist Church in Singapore (MCS) was successfully held online on 7 to 11 September 2020. With an operations committee being manned physically at the Methodist Centre, the conference saw the delegates of TRAC, ETAC and CAC, as well as special guests participating online from their own homes.

As this marks the last year of the current Quadrennium, this year's General Conference saw elections being held for new office-holders for the next Quadrennium (2021-2024). Significantly, the new Bishop for the next Quadrennium was elected. We thank God for the faithful and exemplary service of Bishop Dr Chong Chin Chung, who will be stepping down as Bishop of MCS in December 2020, and congratulate our Bishop-elect, Rev (Dr) Gordon Wong.

第12届总议会于九月七日至十一日在线上顺利举行。总议会有史以来，第一次在线上进行选举！除了一些同工亲身在卫理中心帮忙协调，三一年议会、淡米尔年议会以及华人年议会的代表和嘉宾都各自在家中参与线上议会。

今年是本届的最后一年。议会在5天期间进行了理事会选举，也成功选出下一任，为期四年（2021-2024）的新会督。我们为今年12月卸任的会督张振忠牧师（博士）献上感恩。他多年忠心的服事成了我们的模范。我们也恭贺候任会督，黄昌荣牧师（博士）。

THE REV DR GORDON WONG, 59, has been elected the new Bishop of The Methodist Church in Singapore (MCS). He will be consecrated on 4 December 2020, taking on the role of spiritual leader for more than 44,000 Methodists.
